The space-saving 'all-in-one' design fits neatly on any desktop

Boost productivity with fast, high-quality documents

Scan colour documents direct to a plug-in USB Flash Drive

Affordable multifunctionality

The SP 1000sf provides outstanding versatility and performance for business users needing to achieve a wide range of daily document tasks. It eliminates the need for separate black and white print, copy, fax and colour scan devices, replacing them with a single multifunctional device. The SP 1000sf performs all these tasks affordably and effortlessly in an all-in-one device.

Space-saving all-in-one design

Accommodating multiple devices can be a challenge particularly for individual offices and small departments. The SP 1000sf optimizes office space with its compact design and will sit comfortably on any desktop for your convenience.

Produce quality documents, quickly and simply

Everything about the SP 1000sf is designed to make high-quality document production easy. It gets to work with quick Plug & Play connectivity via USB2.0 and has a prompt warm-up time with high-performance 16 pages per minute (ppm) output. The user-friendly control panel provides fast and simple access to all key functions whilst true 600dpi resolution ensures superb quality output. An Automatic Document Feeder and paper tray are standard making multiple pages easy to manage. Users can easily change the All-In-One cartridge, maximizing up-time and further boosting office productivity.

A welcome boost to personal productivity

Business users everywhere will appreciate the benefit of instant access to essential multifunctional tools. The SP 1000sf gives you the power to print and copy documents including invoices, statements and reports, and fax a wide range of business documents direct from your desktop. You can also scan colour documents directly to your PC with the option to save to a plug-in USB flashdrive for flexible, portable document transfer.

It all adds up to versatile, all-in-one multifunctionality that enhances and raises the levels of office efficiency.
